22	alleges and charges as follows:
23	1. Real Estate Mortgage Network, Inc. doing business as Financemyhome.com,
24	Homebridge, and Menlo Park Funding ("REMN") is a residential mortgage lender and loan services
25	licensed by the Commissioner of Business Oversight ("Commissioner" or "Complainant") pursuant
26	to the California Residential Mortgage Lending Act ("CRMLA") (California Financial Code Section
27	50000 et seq.). REMN has its principal place of business located at 499 Thornall Street, 2 nd Floor,
28	Edison, New Jersey 08837. REMN currently has	15 branch office locations under its CRMLA license located in California, and other states. REMN employs mortgage loan originators in its CRMLA business.

- 2. On or about March 19, 2012, the Commissioner commenced a regulatory examination of the books and records of REMN ("2012 regulatory examination"). The 2012 regulatory examination disclosed that REMN had debit balances (shortages) in in its trust account totaling $3,371,666.12 as of January 31, 2012. REMN maintains only one trust account for all escrow impounds and all borrowers no matter the state residence of the borrowers. The types of impounds maintained in the trust account are taxes, hazard insurance, mortgage insurance premiums, and repairs. California Code of Regulations, title 10, section 1950.314.6 prohibits debit balances in any loan or servicing account maintained by CRMLA licensees.
- 3. On or about June 13, 2012, REMN provided the Department of Business Oversight ("Department") with financial statements, bank account statements and liability ledgers for the period ended May 31, 2012. These documents revealed that the trust account shortage had grown to $6,074,476.66 as of May 31, 2012.
- 4. On or about June 21, 2012, written demand was made to REMN to correct the trust account shortage no later than June 22, 2012. REMN determined that its trust account shortage was $4,500.000.00 as of June 21, 2012 and immediately deposited funds into the trust account to correct the shortage.
- 5. Thereafter, the Department requested documents for the period ended June 30, 2012 in order to determine if the trust account shortage had been corrected. The documentation was provided on or about July 16, 2012 and disclosed that REMN had corrected the trust account shortage, and now had an overage of $216,901.61 in its trust account.
- 6. The 2012 regulatory examination further disclosed that in five (5) of the thirty-three (33) funded loans reviewed, or approximately fifteen percent (15%), REMN was charging the borrower per diem interest in excess of one day prior to the disbursement of loan proceeds in violation of California Financial Code section 50204(o). A California Additional Per Diem Interest Charge Disclosure was found in two (2) of the five (5) loans with per diem interest overcharges. However, the disclosures were not prepared in accordance with California Civil Code section

2948.5(b), and therefore were not considered in calculating per diem interest charges. The per diem interest overcharges averaged $66.20 per loan. The range of per diem interest overcharges was between $19.96 and $166.15. The range of days that interest was overcharged was between one (1) and five (5).

7. On or about November 30, 2012, the Commissioner, based upon the findings of the 2012 regulatory examination, directed REMN to conduct a self-audit regarding per diem interest charges for all loans originated from July 15, 2009 through March 19, 2012, make appropriate

- 7. On or about November 30, 2012, the Commissioner, based upon the findings of the 2012 regulatory examination, directed REMN to conduct a self-audit regarding per diem interest charges for all loans originated from July 15, 2009 through March 19, 2012, make appropriate refunds, and submit a report as to the findings of the self-audit ("self-audit report"). REMN claimed to have completed the self-audit and corresponding refunds on or about March 7, 2013. The self-audit report filed with the Commissioner disclosed sixty-four (64) per diem interest overcharges.
- 8. In testing the thoroughness of the self-audit, the Commissioner noticed that four (4) of the five (5) per diem interest overcharges brought to the attention of REMN during the regulatory examination were not captured in the self-audit as requiring refunds. Accordingly, a follow up letter was sent to REMN requesting that REMN make refunds in those instances and submit an explanation as to why these transactions were not identified for refunds. The explanation received from REMN was contradicted by the self-audit report. Therefore, the Commissioner has determined that the self-audit is unreliable and has made written demand on REMN to conduct a new self-audit, by and through an independent certified public accountant.
- 9. On or about July 1, 2013, the Department received the new self-audit performed by REMN's certified public accountant. The CPA conducted self-audit found a total of 106 per diem overcharges for the period of July 15, 2009 through March 19, 2012. The Department is currently attempting to obtain further documentation to test the accuracy of the CPA conducted self-audit.
- 10. The Commissioner found that REMN was overcharging per diem interest during the last regulatory examination that commenced in May 2009. Based upon the findings of the 2009 regulatory examination, the Commissioner instructed REMN to conduct a self-audit to find all the per diem interest overcharges and make refunds and to also implement such procedures as necessary to ensure that per diem interest was not overcharged in the future.

- 11. The 2012 regulatory examination additionally found that REMN had failed to maintain information that would evidence the "disbursement date" of loan proceeds in eight (8) of the loan files reviewed in violation of Financial Code section 50314. Evidence of a "disbursement date" is necessary to determine whether per diem interest is being properly calculated.
- 12. By reason of the foregoing, REMN has violated California Financial Code sections 50204(o) and 50314 and California Code of Regulations, title 10, section 1950.314.6
 - 13. California Financial Code section 50321 provides in pertinent part:

If, after investigation, the commissioner has reasonable grounds to believe that any licensee has violated its articles of incorporation or any law or rule binding upon it, the commissioner shall, by written order addressed to the licensee, direct the discontinuance of the violation. The order shall be effective immediately, but shall not become final except in accordance with the provisions of Section 50323.

14. California Financial Code section 50323 provides:

- (a) No order issued pursuant to Section 50321or 50322 may become final except after notice to the affected licensee of the commissioner's intention to make the order final and of the reasons for the finding. The commissioner shall also notify the licensee that upon receiving a request the matter will be set for hearing to commence within 15 business days after receipt. The licensee may consent to have the hearing commenced at a later date. If no hearing is requested within 30 days after the mailing or service of the required notice, and none is ordered by the commissioner, the order may become final without hearing and the licensee shall immediately discontinue the practices named in the order. If a hearing is requested or ordered, it shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code), and the commissioner shall have all the powers granted under that act. If, upon the hearing, it appears to the commissioner that the licensee is conducting business in an unsafe and injurious manner or is violating its articles of incorporation or any law of this state, or any rule binding upon it, the commissioner shall make the order of discontinuance final and the licensee shall immediately discontinue the practices named in the order.
- (b) The licensee has 10 days after an order is made final to commence an action to restrain enforcement of the order. If enforcement of the order is not enjoined within 10 days by the court in which the action is brought, the licensee shall comply with the order.

WHEREFORE, good cause showing, the Commissioner is issuing an Order to Discontinue Violations Pursuant to Financial Code Section 50321 and notifying REMN of his intention to make the order final.
